Yuma is one of the oldest cities in Arizona. Fort Yuma, U. S. Army Post, was established here in 1856. The first overland stages operated between San Diego and San Antonio via Yuma and Tucson. Freight came by boat up the Colorado River from the Gulf of California and continued from here by mule team to central and southern Arizona points. Known first as Colorado City, it was incorporated as Arizona City in 1871, and in 1873 its name was changed to Yuma.
